CHILD SUPPORT ORDER FINDINGS
Texas Family Code Section 154.130(a)

The court finds that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate and, further, that:

- | | | |
|-----|---|-------------|
| (1) | the monthly net resources of the obligor per month are | $ (29,817) |
| (2) | the monthly net resources of the obligee per month are | $ (11,278) |
| (3) | the percentage applied to the obligor's net resources for child support by the actual order rendered by the court is | 22.5% |
| (4) | the amount of child support if the percentage guidelines are applied to the first $6,000 of the obligor's net resources is | $ (6,709) |

(5) if applicable, the specific reasons that the amount of child support per month ordered by the court varies from the amount stated in Subdivision (4) are:

_____ ; and

(6) if applicable, the obligor is obligated to support children in more than one household, and:

(A) the number of children before the court is 2

(B) the number of children not before the court residing in the same household with the obligor is 1

and

(C) the number of children not before the court for whom the obligor is obligated by court order to pay support, without regard to whether the obligor is delinquent in child support payments, and who are not counted under Paragraph (A) or (B) is 3
